

National Clinical Guideline 22 for Hospital Nutrition

Event Programme

Tuesday, Dec 8th 2020, 1.45-3.15pm

Briefing and guidance on new National Clinical Guideline 22 for Hospital Nutrition

- 1.45 – 1.55      Opening Address and setting the scene
John V Reynolds, Professor of Surgery, TCD, President IrSPEN
- 1.55 – 2.00      The role of National Clinical Guidelines and Clinical Effectiveness Policy as a lever to improve quality in healthcare
Karen Ryan, Chair of the National Clinical Effectiveness Committee, National Patient Safety Office, Department of Health
Rosarie Lynch, Head of Clinical Effectiveness, AMR and Surveillance, National Patient Safety Office, Department of Health
- 2.00 – 2.05      NCG 22: Relevance of nutrition to acute care medicine
Dr. Vida Hamilton, National Clinical Advisor and Group Lead, HSE Acute Operations
- 2.05 – 2.15      The Budget Impact of implementing NCG 22 nationally and in individual hospitals
Niamh Rice, Independent Consultant, IrSPEN Director
- 2.15 – 2.25      NCG Overview – policy into practice
Carmel O'Hanlon, Clinical Specialist Dietitian, NCG 22 Lead, IrSPEN Director, MINDI
- 2.25 – 2.35      Introducing Nutrition Screening in a Level 4 hospital: *The Beaumont Hospital Experience
Elaine Bradley, Clinical Nurse Manager 2, Business Lead for Medical Directorate
Marie Hennigan, Nurse Education Co-ordinator
- 2.35 – 2.45      Treating 'at risk' patients identified through screening – innovative solutions in a Level 3 hospital: *The Naas Hospital experience
Gillian O'Loughlin, Dietitian Manager
- 2.45 – 3.00      Education and training as key to success: *an overview of the resources and support available to hospitals and how best to access
Margaret O'Neill, National Dietetic Advisor, HSE Strategic Planning and Transformation
- 3.00 – 3.15      Interactive plenary session
Panel moderated by Dr. Karen Boland, Consultant Gastroenterologist, IrSPEN Director